Downtown Red Deer, Red Deer, Alberta

Elevate your business with this premium 680 sq. ft. second-floor office space in the prestigious AEI Building, ideally situated in the heart of downtown Red Deer. The space features three private offices, one boardroom, and a small reception area. Common areas include access to a secure main floor entrance with a stunning spiral staircase, an elevator, and two well-appointed washrooms. The space is move-in ready, offering convenience and efficiency for tenants. This suite can also be combined with Suite 202 to create a larger office space that includes eleven offices, a spacious reception area, and a full kitchen/break room, suitable for expanding businesses. The monthly rent is $1,350, which includes all utilities such as power, water, heat, and common area costs; internet and phone are extra. Limited monthly paid parking is available for tenants, with additional on-street parking and a City lot located across the street. The AEI Building is a secure, well-maintained property that offers excellent access to Red Deer's business core, local amenities, and major transit routes, providing a convenient and professional setting for a variety of businesses.
